

How a great week ends....

On Saturday we all woke up early and said goodbye to our host family. That was really sad! Then we drove to the airport. On the way we saw the sunrise that was expressive. When we arrived at the airport, we said goodbye to our host pupils and checked in. It wasn't too sad because we will see us again in February in Germany. We all had a great time in Sweden.

